

Conference

East European versus West European Mentalities: Can We Hope to Understand One Another?

19-22 March, 2009

*Sigmund Freud University,
Vienna.
Austria.*

PROGRAMME SCHEDULE.

19.03.2009

09:00 Opening

Alfred Pritz, rector of the Sigmund Freud Private University: “East European versus West European Mentalities: Can We Hope to Understand One Another in Vienna”.

Representative from Viennese government.

09:20 Panel I: „What do we know about mentalities and their differences?”

A. Hansen-Löve (GER): « The East of the West, and the West of the East: Inter-cultural Prognoses as a zero-sum game. Examples from Russia are given.

Jiří Berka (SZE): «East European versus West European mentalities: And What About the Middle European Ones? »

Jurko Prochasko (UKR): «The Central European: Can such a person exist in the contemporary setting? »

11:10 Short break

11:30 Panel I (continue)

Aglaja Przyborski (AUT): «Collaborations and differences from a psychological and methodological perspective»

Aleksander Filz (UKR): «The end of Post-Modernism. Identity as a main humanitarian quality»

Michail Reshetnikov (RUS): «Hidden images of the future (a psychoanalysis of European modernity) »

13:15 Lunch break

14:30 Poster presentation

15:00 Panel I (ending)

Galina Makarova (RUS): «Life scenarios in Eastern and Western Europe»

Felix de Mendelssohn (AUT): «Historical trauma in Eastern and Western Europe: Findings from the psychoanalytic large group work »?»

16:15 Short break

16:30 Panel II: «Psychology and Sociology of Soviet and Post-Soviet society»

Wiktor Woronkow (RUS): «Soviet personality: life after death»

Ostap Kryvdyk (UKR): «Soviet nationalist identity in contemporary Ukraine»

Bernd Rieken (AUT): «Superstitions and magic, in mental structures, in former socialistic societies»

18:15 Short break

18:30 Panel II (continue)

Wolodymyr Sulym (UKR): «Language – Identity - Nation»

Viktor Makarov (RUS): «Psychotherapeutic aspects, of the mentalities of Soviet and Post-soviet individuals in Russia»

19:45 Short break

20:00 Open discussion

Rimantas Kočiūnas/Simon du Plock (LTU/GBR): «Psychotherapy and psychotherapists in Western and Post-Soviet space: from control to control»

20.03.2009

09:00 Panel II: «Psychology and sociology of Soviet and Post-Soviet society»
(continue)

Gerhard Benetka (AUT): «Psychology in the Soviet Union, and the Cultural-historical School»

Albina Colden (AUT): «Russian preferences in emotional experience: An alternative value system»

Vladimir Petrunin (RUS): «Особенности русского самосознания»

10:45 Short break

11:00 Panel II (continue)

Julia Bernstein (GER): «Transmigration and Capitalism: The experience of former Soviet Union migrants, in Germany»

Anna Schor-Tschudnowskaja (AUT): «Sociology of homo postsoveticus? »

Jochen Stiklorus (GER): «Individual and Society in Contemporary Russia: A Russian world-view»

12:45 Lunch break

14:15 Poster presentations

14:45 Panel II: «Psychology and Sociology of Soviet, and Post-Soviet society»
(ending)

Sergej Zamogilnyy (RUS): «Psycho-social analysis of communicational practices, of ethnic migrants in Russia, under conditions of globalization»

Franz Schwediauer (AUT): «Psycho-dynamical issues of transit, in countries of South-East Europe: Romanian is given as an example»

16:00 Short break

16:15 Panel III: «Remembrances between East and West»

Karol Sauerland (PL): «Social memory in East and West Europe: Why are Soviet times remembered differently in the East, as oppose to the West? »

Ludmila Lutz-Auras (GER): «The Berlin-Karlshorst German-Russian museum, and Poklonnaya Gora: Symbols of memory for national glory»

Karin Bachmann (HU): „Perspectives of political culture in Europe: Historical and personal images in Germany, Switzerland, Slovak Republic and Hungary»

18:00 Short break

18:15 Panel III (continue)

Friedrich Cain (GER): «Bruno Schultz, and paradigms of trans-cultural memory in Europe»
Erzsebet Fanni Toth (HU): «How did the international tourism in Post-Socialistic Hungary change remembrances, in relation to culture: Budapest is given as an example.

19:30 Departure for the state reception at the Vienna city Mayor

21.03.2009

09:00 Panel III: «Remembrances between East and West» (ending)

Oksana Karpenko (RUS): «Love for the Homeland is natural and organic: Remembrances of patriotic feelings in Russian schools»

L. Dokutschaeva/V. Dokutschaev (RUS): «Display of long-term effects of repression and wars, through patterns of descendants behaviour»

Marija Juric Pahor (ITA): «Trauma tolerance, caused by genocide in the cultural memory: A comparison of Italy and Slovenia is used as an example. »

10:45 Short break

11:00 Panel IV: «Psychotherapy between East and West»

Serge Ginger (FR): «Gestalt and Psychotherapy in Eastern and Western Europe»

Leonid Broude (ISR): «The psychotherapeutic setting, and non-Western cultures: The unique features of psychotherapy, in multi-cultural society, under conditions of international conflict. »

Sergey Igumnov (BLR): «Psychology of Belarus: East and West»

12:45 Lunch break

14:15 Poster presentation

15:00 Panel IV (continue)

Irena Bezic (CRO): «The Role of the Group Leader, in a group therapy setting, in post-Socialist society: Croatia» is given as an example.

Halyna Katolyk (UKR): «Education, in child Psychotherapy, in Austria and the Ukraine»

Ekaterina Makarova (AUT): «Psychotherapeutic techniques for addressing mental differences»

16:45 Short break

17:00 Panel IV: «Psychotherapy between East and West» (ending)

Oleg Witte (RUS): «Concept of Boris Porshnev, psychoanalysis and developmental psychology»

Irena Sibgatullina (RUS): «The trans-cultural mission of psychotherapy and what changes the psychology of Easterners and Westerners? »

A.E. Aleksejschik (LTU): «East-European and West-European psychotherapy in the beginning of the XXI century: Resistance and submission, or co-operation and compliment? »

18:45 Short break

19:00 Open discussion

Galina Pokhmelkina (RUS): «Realization of European psychotherapy, and mediation in Russia: Conditions and difficulties. »

22.03.2009

09:00 Panel V: «Innovative theoretical and empirical researchers in the East and the West.»

Sergej Maksimenko (UKR): «Methodological status of categorical need, in personality psychology»

Inna Galetzkaja (UKR): «Individual qualities in the structure of psychological health. »

Diana Butiene (LTU): «Specialties of children's experience of loneliness. »

10:45 Short break

11:00 Panel V (ending)

Renee Oudijk (NED)/Maria Koleva (BUL): «The Social being, or individual behaviour and Social Norms: Individual and Society»

Sofja Grobrowskaja (UKR): «Socio-psychological necessities of exploitive behavior»

Galina Koptelzewa (GER): «Academic study and training, the intercultural perspective of Germany and Russia. »

12:45 Lunch break

14:15 Poster presentation

15:00 Panel VI: «Society and the individual. Language, image and gender in the East and the West»

Elisabeth Ponocny-Seliger (AUT): «Females on female topics – what do Austrian and Polish women think of emancipation, equality, gender differences, and family structure? »

Nataliya Khimka (UKR): «The mutual perceptions of residents of Vienna, and Lviv: Re-constructive analysis, based on private photographs»

Alexander Cantor (RUS)/Ilya Cantor (RUS): «Affect in post-communistic Russia: Psychopathology in our days»

16:45 Short break

17:00 Panel VI (ending)

Elena Dormann/Thomas Vogel (GER): « The founding of a center for German studies, in a French university, in Yerevan, Armenia: A cross-cultural challenge. »

Stefan Hampl (AUT): «Television programs, as documentations of culture: Methods of interpreting video and film. »

Anna Schober (AUT): "Cinema and the (re-) discovery of differences, in the south-east of Europe, and western Europe, since 1945".

18:45 Conference closing